

Videoplugger Ltd.

Tel. +44(20) 8659 2766 • Fax +44(0) 709 286 8764

Internship Position: Sales and Marketing Assistant.
Start date: Ongoing

Introduction:

Videoplugger is a global video content agency specializing in aggregation, syndication and distribution of on-line video content for media and commercial use internationally.

Founded in 2004 by Emanuele Galloni, Videoplugger has quickly become a leading video content agency specializing in sourcing, supplying, distributing and trading video content around the world.

Requirements:

The intern should be motivated by willingness to succeed excel in the field, be a highly motivated and articulate professional.

We are looking for someone with enthusiasm, ability to focus, work hard and a positive attitude.

Computer literacy and the ability to speak one additional European language is preferable (i.e. French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Polish, Russian, Spanish, Slovak, etc).

An interest in media is essential.

The successful intern will be involved in several activities within the company, including but not limited to:

- Updating the database of the company publishing digital material.
- Managing sales accounts, performing sales and pitching of our products and services.
- Liaising with international clients and suppliers.
- Business development.
- Search for new market possibilities for the company and expanding the Market base of the company.
- Student status is required.
- Other general duties as required.

Please send you CV in English and a cover letter to info@videoplugger.com.

Videoplugger's office is based in South East London, within 1 min from Mainland Railway and London Overground station. Find us on this map

Links: www.videoplugger.com, www.mmnc.net, Blog: The informer

Facebook group: www.facebook.com/videoplugger

Twitter: mmnc.net