

Doctoral School of Political Science, Public Policy, and International Relations Full PhD Fellowships Available

Central European University (CEU) is an English-language, graduate university located in Budapest, Hungary. The University is accredited in the United States and Hungary. Our students come from over 100 countries and our faculty from more than 40. CEU offers small, seminar-style courses and a student/faculty ratio of 7:1.

The doctoral program in political science—operated jointly by the departments of Public Policy, Political Science, and International Relations and European Studies—is one of the largest, most international and most competitive programs in Europe, comprising more than 50 permanent faculty members and almost 100 doctoral students from 30 countries.

The doctoral school offers five specializations based on a system of ‘tracks’:

- Comparative Politics
- International Relations
- Political Economy
- Political Theory
- Public Policy

Financial Aid and Tuition

Doctoral students are eligible to receive a full CEU fellowship for up to three years that covers all tuition fees and a generous living allowance for up to three years. Numerous additional funding opportunities exist, such as the Doctoral Research Support Grant Program, the Erasmus Mobility Scheme, and various research and travel funds.
